Review

"Locked Up" has all the standard ingredients of a brutal prison film, interwoven with a very tender gay romance. This film contains a few graphic scenes that take it close to porn with a lot of male on male nudity, a masturbation sequence, together with a very graphic rape scene.

It manages to be quite a charmer with a hauntingly beautiful sound track, The music, coupled with the depressing and stark prison ambience, raises the emotional impact of this film. It was filmed in a real prison and it certainly feels very authentic.

This film will shock, entertain, and bring a tear to the eye.

Definitely not for everyone!
